

16TH ANNUAL FLORIDA ELECTROACOUSTIC MUSIC FESTIVAL

The Florida Electroacoustic Music Festival is now in the 16th year of bringing together an international rostrum of today's finest electroacoustic composers to present their cutting-edge music. Past composers-in-residence have included world renowned composers Hubert S. Howe, Jr., Cort Lippe, Gary Nelson, Jon Appleton, Joel Chadabe, Larry Austin, Barry Truax, Richard Boulanger, Paul Lansky, James Dashow, Morton Subotnick and John Chowning. This year's Composer-in-Residence is noted computer music pioneer, Charles Dodge. All FEMF16 events are at the University of Florida Phillips Center for the Performing Arts Black Box Theater unless otherwise noted.
